Special Offerings

Eagle Hill Field Seminars, 2006

Seminars specializing in all aspects of the natural history sciences, including seminars on watershed issues, classical ecology, biology and taxonomy, ecological restoration, and scientific illustration

In support of field biologists, modern field naturalists, and students of the natural history sciences, Eagle Hill offers specialty seminars and workshops at different ecological scales for those who are interested in understanding, addressing, and solving complex ecological questions. Eagle Hill has long been recognized as offering hard-to-find seminars and workshops which provide important opportunities for training and meeting others who are likewise dedicated to the natural history sciences.

Eagle Hill field seminars are of special interest because they focus on the classical natural history of one of North America's most spectacular and pristine natural areas, the coast of eastern Maine from Acadia National Park to Petit Manan National Wildlife Refuge and beyond. Most seminars combine field studies with follow-up lab studies and a review of the literature. Additional information is provided in lectures, slide presentations, and discussions. Seminars are primarily taught for people who already have a reasonable background in a seminar program or in related subjects, or who are keenly interested in learning about a new subject. Prior discussions of personal study objectives are welcome. Credits and CEUs are available through the University of Maine, Orono, ME.

Statewide MAT in French: Summer of 2006

Plans are being developed to make the Master of Arts in Teaching French readily available to teachers statewide. The focus of the program is a summer institute that assembles a community of learners in an immersion setting and that maximizes the participation of faculty from throughout the University of Maine System and from the State's private colleges. The summer of 2006 will feature courses on the teaching of modern languages, teaching of literature K-12, a Québec institute, and courses on French culture and grammar. Candidates will have the option of completing their program in two summers of 12 credits each and an academic year (1 course per semester) or spreading their course load over several years by taking advantage of courses offered in future summer institutes and online or at campuses in their region. French content and pedagogy courses offered during the academic year will be adapted to electronic delivery. Course offerings for the Summer of 2006 are:

Course Number/Name/Credits/Offered at: MLC 598/The Teaching of Modern Languages/3cr/Orono; MLC 598/Teaching Literature K-12/3cr/Orono; FRE 598/Projects in French: Québec Institute/3cr/Québec

IMMUNIZATION

Maine State Law (220 MRSA 60359) requires all students born after 1956 enrolled in a degree program or registered full-time to furnish proof of the following immunizations:

1. Diphtheria and Tetanus (DT) within the last 10 years. (If a tetanus only was given, it must have been administered within the last 5 years.)
2. Measles, Mumps and Rubella (MMR) after the first birthday. Live vaccine must have been used. If immunized prior to 1973, a re-vaccination is recommended. Your immunization record must be a photocopy of the original medical record including the date and type of immunization, and the signature of the individual providing the immunization. Send this record to Immunization Office, 5721 Cadler Health Center, Orono, ME, 04469-5721 or FAX to 207-581-3997. Immunization records are stored in electronic format and may be released with a verbal request to the student or another medical or educational institution as a summary statement. For questions or special options, please call 207-581-4005.

In complying with the letter and spirit of applicable laws and in pursuing its own goals of diversity, the University of Maine System shall not discriminate on the grounds of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin or citizenship status, age, disability, or veterans status in employment, education, and all other areas of the University. The University provides reasonable accommodations to qualified individuals with disabilities upon request.

Questions and complaints about discrimination in any area of the University should be directed to the Executive Director of Equal Opportunity, The University of Maine, 5754 North Stevens Hall, Room 101, Orono, ME 04469-5754, telephone (207) 581-1226 (voice and TDD).

The University of Maine reserves the right to revise, amend or change items set forth in this course schedule from time to time. Accordingly, readers of this schedule should inquire as to whether any such revisions, amendments or changes have been made since the date of publication. UMaine reserves the right to cancel course offerings, set minimum and maximum size of classes, change designated instructors in courses and make decisions affecting the academic standing of anyone participating in a course or program offered by UMaine.

The Clery Act: A new federal law, The Clery Act, requires universities to disclose three-year statistics regarding campus crimes, including public property within, or immediately adjacent to and accessible from the campus. This report includes our policies for campus security, such as those concerning alcohol and drug use, crime prevention, the reporting of crimes, sexual assault, and other matters. To obtain a copy of this report access our web site, or contact the Director of Public Safety, University of Maine, 5794 Public Safety Building, Orono, ME 04469-5794. <http://www.umaine.edu/security>
