

College of Education and Human Development

Think 30 Summer  University

Maine Island Culture and Community Engagement

A May Term travel-study course

May 22-29, Swan's Island, Maine

Pre-trip meetings at the University of Maine May 17 and 19

The College of Education and Human Development offers this unique travel study opportunity on beautiful Swan's Island off the coast of Maine. Students will live, study and take part in community service projects on the island for a week in May. Course readings will be tailored to students' majors and areas of interest. Community service projects also will be individually designed and can include:

- Working at the Swan's Island school, library or museum
- Lighthouse renovations
- Park and trail maintenance

The class is cross-listed with the following course numbers:
CEC580, MES498, EHD462, EHD472, EHD580.

For more information:

Annette Nelligan, Lecturer in Counselor Education
207.581.2474; nelligan@maine.edu

John Maddaus, Associate Professor of Education
207.581.2429; john.maddaus@maine.edu

umaine.edu/edhd
University of Maine
5766 Shibles Hall
Orono, ME 04469-5766
207.581.2441
coehd@maine.edu

The University of Maine does not discriminate on the grounds of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, including transgender status and gender expression, national origin, citizenship status, age, disability, genetic information, or veteran status in employment, education, and all other programs and activities. The following person has been designated to handle inquiries regarding nondiscrimination policies: Director, Office of Equal Opportunity, 101 North Stevens Hall, 581.1226, eoinfo@umit.maine.edu.